AFA and FAA Partner on Passenger Safety

Washington, DC, May 23, 2011 – The Association of Flight Attendants-CWA (AFA) International President Veda Shook and FAA Administrator Randy Babbitt kicked off the summer travel season today with some helpful tips to educate passengers on how to make air travel as safe as possible.

“As first responders in the cabin, a Flight Attendant’s foremost responsibility is to help protect the safety and security of our passengers. Through comprehensive training and extensive experience, Flight Attendants are well equipped to ensure passengers arrive at their destination safely and securely,” said Shook.

AFA and the FAA issued some helpful guidelines for passengers to keep in mind when flying this summer. Read Full Press Release>>
